Liffe Robusta coffee futures. Robusta was supported by increased demand from roasters who were substituting Arabica beans for cheaper Robusta beans in a variety of retail coffee blends to control production costs and shield consumers from inflation.

September position closed at $ 2757 per ton gaining US$ 63 while November position closed at $2671 per ton gaining US$ 59 from previous ICE Arabica coffee futures. Coffee prices closed higher due to strength in the Brazilian real which is bullish for coffee prices as the real rose to a 1-year high against the dollar. The stronger real discourages export selling from Brazil's coffee producers.

September position closed at US cents 182.95 per lb gaining 2.80 US Cents while December position closed at US cents 181.25 per lb gaining 2.90 US Cents from the previous closing.
