London International Financial Futures and Options Exchange (LIFFE) Robusta coffee futures closed lower across the board on Monday. March position closed at $ 4,029 per ton losing US$ 84 while May position closed at $ 3,952 per ton losing US$ 85 from the previous closing.

Inter Continental Exchange (ICE) Arabica coffee futures: Closed mixed on Monday. March position closed higher at US cents 333.25 per lb gaining 1.00 US Cents while May position closed lower at US cents 315.05 per lb losing 0.30 US cents over the previous closing.

Coffee prices settled mixed on Monday, with Robusta falling to a 4-week low as above-average rainfall in Brazil to give a positive outlook for coffee yields but negative for prices. This was after Somar Meteorologia, the Meteorological Agency in Brazil on Monday reported that Brazil's largest Arabica coffee-growing area received 69.8 mm of rain or 117% of the historical average during the week ended January 30. The outlook for ample coffee supplies is a negative factor for prices. In December, Conab, Brazil's crop forecasting agency, raised its total Brazil 2025 coffee production estimate by 2.4% to 56.54 million bags, from a September estimate of 55.20 million bags.
