London International Financial Futures and Options Exchange (LIFFE) Robusta coffee futures: closed higher across the board on Friday. September position closed at $1,451 per tonne gaining US$ 21, while November position closed at $1,479 per tonne gaining US$ 20 over the previous closing.

Inter Continental exchange (ICE) Arabica coffee futures closed higher across the board on Friday. September position closed at US cents 109.45 per lb gaining US cents 2.75 while December position closed at US cents 113.05 per lb gaining US cents 2.75 over the previous closing.

Coffee prices moved higher on Friday with Arabica Coffee gaining after Colder weather with widespread precipitation was forecast by the Brazil’s Meteorological Agency (Somar Meteorologia) starting this week for the coffee-growing areas of Brazil, which may slow the harvest and drying of Arabica coffee crop. Robusta coffee also found support on tighter supplies after Vietnam's General Statistics Office reported on Thursday that Vietnam January-June coffee exports were down by 10.6% over last year at 928,000 MT. Vietnam is the world's biggest exporter of Robusta coffee beans.

Coffee prices moved higher on Friday with Arabica Coffee gaining after Colder weather with widespread precipitation was forecast by the Brazil’s Meteorological Agency (Somar Meteorologia) starting this week for the coffee-growing areas of Brazil, which may slow the harvest and drying of Arabica coffee crop. Robusta coffee also found support on tighter supplies after Vietnam's General Statistics Office reported on Thursday that Vietnam January-June coffee exports were down by 10.6% over last year at 928,000 MT. Vietnam is the world's biggest exporter of Robusta coffee beans.