Liffe Robusta coffee futures ends lower following the trend in New York. November position closed at $1318 per ton losing $13 while January position closed at $1344 per ton losing $12 from the previous closing.

The week ended lower off the opening bell and were unable to gain enough traction to attempt a recovery. Market participants will continue to watch for weather updates from Brazil to maintain the positive momentum.

ICE Arabica coffee futures. The drop evidences further liquidation of positions during the week. December position closed at US cents 102.75 per lb losing US Cents 0.85 from the previous closing, while May position closed at US cents 106.30 per lb losing 0.85 US Cents from the closing of the previous day. Despite being too early for a drought declaration in Brazil, concerns about the dry weather in some regions fueled the rally.